Eternal return (Live in Miskolc)

Therion

Kronos is drumming and time is running
Enter the aeon and bring back the pastWheel of Fortuna dancing with Shiva
Spin to the newborn who lives to the lastThe world is changing and fall apart
End of the kingdom and of your heart(Veil of time)
The queen of the beauty
(Veil of time)
Now cold and pale
(Veil of time)
The sun is setting
(Veil of time)
The night prevailBut fear not darkness its hidden light
And you will find it shining with bright(Veil of time)
The time is running
(Veil of time)
The flame will burn
(Veil of time)
When today vanish
(Veil of time)
But all returnTime will come to an end
But bring back the start againQueen of time will rise again
And bring forth the future
Queen of time will rise again
And bring forth the futureWheel of time will Wheel of time will, will whir around
Wheel of time will whir around
And bring back the past
