

Ai No Scenario

CHiCO with HoneyWorks

An unwavering justice in an unclear world
The uncovered truth in these hands A bold, strong shadow dances gorgeously
Let me hear the secret you're hiding someday
Touching it with an extended hand
Is impossible for everyone
Show me the world you're hiding A wavering puzzling heart
Unraveled, stealing your gaze
Feeling uncertain, crying
You can't find it.
Where did the truth I searched for disappear to? Even if
That was the answer to an unclear world
Believe in this extended hand
I won't ever run away, I'm not scared
Open your eyes, we're erasing that weakness This repeating fate
Have you noticed it?
I'll tell you about the secret I'm hiding some day
A compromise, a fake shadow
You don't know
The seeds of memory entangled by necessary thorns. The feeling of wanting to protect Standing against solving this connection
I'll save you every time, I won't waver
Where did that hidden truth disappear to? Even if I turn the world into my enemy
Believe me, even in the future
I won't ever run away, I won't hesitate so
I'll destroy the scenario and rebel Even if the world becomes my enemy
Believe in this extended hand
I won't ever let go, solving the mystery, our fate in this hand
Even if this answer repeats I won't ever run away, I'm not scared
I'll destroy the scenario and rebel
