Promises, Promises

Christopher Williams

I'm so sorryI've been in love before and it let me down
Now I'm all grown up no turning back girl
Like a child's heart a play
you know the things we used to say
(you remember baby)
When we were in love we made(Chorus)
Promises, promises we don't keep
Promises, promises we can't eat nor sleep
Promises, promises we don't keep
Promises, promises we can't eat nor sleepGirl when you broke out, I thought life would end
Now I'm all strung out
Try'na pick up the pieces once againIt seems no matter what I do
Bad luck has been my best friend
All of the things you used to say
They are just promisesPromises, promises we don't keep
Promises, promises we can't eat nor sleep
Promises, promises we don't keep
Promises, promises we can't eat nor sleepMemories are the only things
That keeps me holding on, holding on yeah
Remember loving you
All night longPromises, promises we don't keep
Promises, promises we can't eat nor sleep
Promises, promises we don't keep
Promises, promises we can't eat nor sleep(Music Break)Promises, promises we don't keep
Promises, promises we can't eat nor sleep
Promises, promises we don't keep
Promises, promises we can't eat nor sleepIt seems no matter what I do
Bad luck has my best friend
Not to me those words you say
They are just promisesPromises, promises we don't keep
Promises, promises we can't eat nor sleep
Promises, promises we don't keep
Promises, promises we can't eat nor sleepPromises, promises we don't keep
Promises, promises we can't eat nor sleep
Promises, promises we don't keep
Promises, promises we can't eat nor sleep
