Six Seconds

Ayria

You know him
He's the one who leaves you high and dry
You know this
It takes 6 seconds on all sides
You know him
He'll compromise your alibi
You know him
He'll make you feel like you cannot survive
Totally sadistic
Won't tolerate submissives
Never underestimate his drive
Couldn't see him coming
You're walking but he's running
You'll be catching up for miles
Beat you (x5)
I was trained to beat you
I couldn't get past you
I'm gonna outlast
I couldn't outlast you
You shouldn't be here
But look what I can do
Don't show him something
Unless it's something new
I was trained to beat you
I couldn't beat you
I couldn't beat you
I couldn't beat you
You know him

He's the one that leaves you high and dry
You know this
It takes 6 seconds on all sides
You know him
He'll compromise your alibi
You know him
He'll make you feel like you cannot survive
Totally sadistic
Won't tolerate submissives
Never underestimate his drive

Couldn't see him coming
You're walking but he's running
You'll be catching up for miles
I think it takes 6 seconds on all sides... (x20)
It's going on forever... (x3)
and ever and ever and ever
You know him
He's the one that leaves you high and dry
You know this
It takes 6 seconds on all sides
You know him
He'll compromise your alibi
You know him
He'll make you feel like you cannot survive
Seconds
On
All
Sides
