

Put a Straw Under Baby

Brian Eno

Put a straw under baby
Your good deed for the day
Put a straw under baby
Keep the splinters away Let the corridors echo
As the dark places grow
Hear superior's footsteps
On the landing below There's a place in the orchard
Where no one dare go
The last nun who went there
Turned into a crow Turned into a crow, crow
Turned into a crow
The last nun who went there
Turned into a crow
