The All Time High (Radio Edit)

Team Me

wide awake
in a world
at the end of its night
and young love
like ours
will not survive this night
shut your eyes
and your mouth
and try this moment out cause it's real
and it's here
and it's glowing through your veins building in your bones
we believe in true sensations
the all time high
doesn't even matter how hard we may try
we still lose
still awake
in a world
and young love
like ours
will not survive this night
does it burn
as bad
does it burn as bad for you
cause it's real
and it's here
and it's flowing through our veins building in our bones
we still lose
it's flowing your veins
building in your bones
