

The Boy With the X-Ray Eyes

Babylon Zoo

An invitation to dance on the floor
Entertainment was low in my home
My vicious eyes; what is love?
Is it something inside my brain
Love, oh it's driving us all insane
The Boy with the X-Ray Eyes
It's not a surprise
Nothing really matters to him
Spies, looking into my window
I watch
Spies, they're watching us tonight
The Boy with the X-Ray Eyes
It's not a surprise
I see through your lies
With my bionic eyes
I see through your mind
With my bionic, bionic
I see through your lies with my bionic eyes
Bionic, bionic, bionic eyes
