Pox Eclipse

The Deadlights

The seas will rise
The sun will; burn black skies
1000 lives buried beneath landslides
The end draws near the final day is now here the verdicts clear
It's time you face your worst fear
Now I can see
What was so unclear to me
And I believe in destiny and we'll all fall eventually
Don't waste your time
Can't ease your mind
Don't let your faith seduate you
We've lost this time and soon will find there's no one left to hear you scream
Build you walls around you then you'll watch them crumble down
And your fear won't save you
But it's worked til now
