World Ablaze (feat. James Fauntleroy)

Big Sean

Stay close to me, so close to me
That's how it's supposed to be
Long as you've been knowing me
You been holding me down
I'm sure as fuck, so fuck hopefully
I watch over you, you watch over me
And that's how it's supposed to be
And we are, alrightNow, when the world's ablaze, the stars will fall
The lights go off
Say its going to be, alright
It's going to be, alright
Cause, when the world's ablaze, the stars will fall
The lights go off
Say its going to be, alright
It's going to be, alrightJust tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be
Tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be
Tell me it'll be, just tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be
Tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be, tell me it'll beMight not make it this time
Is what not to say at this time
Sometimes, the truth ain't what you need to hear
And you tell them they alright, when they need a cure
I'mma believe in paradise if I don't see the sand
Only palm trees I got is this weed off in my hand
Around the same time my mom said "Sean, you need a plan
Mrs. Freeman's son, across the street got shot
Now she need a hand!"
Traumatized, gotta watch, his momma cry
Now I gotta look up, up in his momma eyes, and gotta tell his momma lies
Like, "It's gonna be alright," knowing it ain't alright
I know there's just so much pain, and there's probably more on the wayNow, when the world's ablaze, the stars will fall
The lights go off
Say its going to be, alright
It's going to be, alright
Cause, when the world's ablaze, the stars will fall
The lights go off
Say its going to be, alright
It's going to be, alrightJust tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be
Tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be

Just tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be

Tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be, tell me it'll beYou know I love you momma like she mine

Whether we together, or we trying

We fuck, three times, we smoke, tree times

We climb, I left, came back in town, it wasn't in time

The cancer done came, it just hit it's prime

It came from the breast, just spread to the spine

It might make her blind, she stare at the blinds

"This can't be my mom!"

Got me thinking, "whats a girl to do, a girl to do?

When her world's a pool?

And she comes up for air, and it's walls of flames

And all the stress is all propane

She's burned again"

Hoping I could make her smile

Take cancer and David Blaine it out

POOF! Disappear, God make an out!Now, when the world's ablaze, the stars will fall

The lights go off

Say its going to be, alright

It's going to be, alright

Cause, when the world's ablaze, the stars will fall

The lights go off

Say its going to be, alright

It's going to be, alrightJust tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be

Tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be

Just tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be

Tell me it'll be, tell me it'll be, tell me it'll beStay close to me, so close to me

That's how it's supposed to be

Long as you've been knowing me

You been holding me down

I'm sure as fuck, so fuck hopefully

I watch over you, you watch over me

And that's how it's supposed to be

And we are, alrightStay close to me, so close to me

That's how it's supposed to be

Long as you've been knowing me

You been holding me down

I'm sure as fuck, so fuck hopefully

I watch over you, you watch over me

And that's how it's supposed to be

And we are, alrightStay close to me, so close to me

That's how it's supposed to be

Long as you've been knowing me

You been holding me down

I'm sure as fuck, so fuck hopefully

I watch over you, you watch over me
And that's how it's supposed to be
And we are, alright
