Thinking Bout Ya

JTR

I know its hard to fight,
But I tried to make it right, All the time,
Right before I lost,
And I've heard you're doing well from your friends,
That I should start to pretend, and now Im feeling lost,I should move on, I know
I should be strong, I know
But you're still stuck inside my head,
To hearing every word you said,
I should move on, I know,
I should be strong, I know,
But everytime that I lay down,
I keep thinking bout ya,
Thinking bout ya,
I keep thinking bout ya,The truth, is hard to take when you know,
You've had the break and your world, is falling to the ground,
Its cold, on the other side and its dark,
How do I restart my heart,
And I don't have a clue,I should move on, I know
I should be strong, I know
But you're still stuck inside my head,
To hearing every word you said,
I should move on, I know,
I should be strong, I know,
But everytime that I lay down,
I keep thinking bout ya,
Thinking bout ya,
I keep thinking bout ya,You said you loved but you lied,
You said you loved but you lied, and I believed ya,
You said you loved but you lied,
You said you loved but you lied, and I believed ya,I should move on, I know
I should be strong, I know
But you're still stuck inside my head,
To hearing every word you said,
I should move on, I know,
I should be strong, I know,
But everytime that I lay down,
I keep thinking bout ya,
Thinking bout ya,I should move on, I know
I should be strong, I know

But you're still stuck inside my head,
To hearing every word you said,
I should move on, I know,
I should be strong, I know,
But everytime that I lay down,
I keep thinking bout ya,
Thinking bout ya,
I keep thinking bout ya,
