

Honeychain

Throwing Muses

My best friend knows this old guy who
Who keeps a picture in his shoe
He takes it out after a spell
Says, "See"Shouldnt stare that way so long, baby
Stare holes into the wallsMy dress hangs here for you to wear out
I walked in beauty too till I met you
Here hangs this chain this thing
This old girl keeps, we got it easySo why do you stare that way so long?
Stare holes into the wallsWere all honey
Dripping through the honeychain
And lay our lives down
Down and pretty in the honeychainWere all honey
Dripping through the honeychain
And lay our lives down
Down and pretty in the honeychainPlease dont stare that way so hard, baby
Stare holes
