A Fair Judgement

Opeth

Losing sleep into deep
Fading sun, what have I done?
Came so close to what I need most
Nothing left hereCut the ties, uncovered disguise
Left behind all intertwined
Lost control moved out of the role
Now nothing's left hereLeave it be it was meant for me
Soul sacrifice forgot the advice
Lost track of time in a flurry of smoke
Waiting anxiety fair judgment deservedLosing sleep into deep
Fading sun, what have I done?
Came so close to what I need most
Nothing left here
