You're Not Alone

James Durbin

I knew your story far too well
And inside and on the outside
Love is nowhere close to you
You don't even know yourself,yourselfI sleep inside ypur fraction heart
Your fraction heart
And the pieces together the broken heart
Cause love is always meant for you
And now it's time to start
To startYou're not alone,this way you are
This is where I'll be
You're not alone
You can follow me freeFree is on the fountain,walking by
Take one and make it right
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for youWe're behind those painfull veins
Cause love is always meant for you
Can't you see?
Can't you see?You're not alone,this way you are
This is where I'll be
You're not alone
You can follow me freeFree is on the fountain,walking by
Take one and make it right
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for youEverything you think you've seen
Is something in between
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for youTruth is always there with you
And take the one and make it right
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you
Everything you think you've seen
Is something in between
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you

Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you
Love is all I have for you
