

While You Wait

Dead Letter Circus

While you wait
An uncertain day starts
Another fake war
What will it take?Are you ready?
While you wait
You're at the neighbours
Your hand on the blade
Of the mother's slaveAre you ready?
While you wait
An uncertain day starts
Another fake war
What will it take?Are you ready?
While you wait
You're at the neighbours
Your hand on the blade
Of the mother's slaveFirst they sold you
A threat to your life
Imminent phase
Of a fear unknown
Then they told you
Best that we strike now
Before them others doIt becomes you
Empathy slides
You will know hate
Of the fear alone
Then they own you
Better just strike now
Before them others doWhile you wait
An uncertain day starts
Another fake war
What will it take?Are you ready?
While you wait
You're at the neighbours
Your hand on the blade
Of the mother's slaveYou believe what you want to Remove what you know
When your heart is the truth from the lie
And the dream that you know
Is the furthest thing from the fates of the hopeless who die

As you sell the machine
Are you certain you are not the face of the world you despise?
You know that's the truth
You're indifferent(Instrumental break)While you wait
An uncertain day starts
Another fake war
What will it take?Are you ready?
While you wait
You're at the neighbours
Your hand on the blade
Of the mother's slaveAre you ready?
While you wait
An uncertain day starts
Another fake war
What will it take?Are you ready?
While you wait
You're at the neighbours
Your hand on the blade
Of the mother's slaveAre you ready?
While you wait?
