

Country Girl

Paul Brandt

She's been in 4-H since she was nine years old She wears overalls and has a heart of gold She likes ATV'S and trucks, and fishin holes
But she's got a tender side

She don't let nobody tell her what to do
She thinks Jimmy Thompson's smile is kinda cute
She loves her mom and dad and she love's Jesus too Well some things you just can't hide

She's a wild rose Pretty as a picture and hard to hold off to chase the chickens She's a little tom-boy
but ain't she beautiful Look out world She Ain't afraid running round barefoot hair up in braids but man does she look good A little tom-boy
but ain't she beautiful
She's a Country Girl

Her mom and them just shake their heads when she runs by she can't help but turn the head of every guy If daddy even thinks about that day he cries but whatcha gonna do?

Then the day her daddy dreaded finally came the church, the gown, that boy, the rings. the weddin cake
She might be all grown up, but nothin's really changed
