

Sleepwalker

Emily King

Something in the air is calling me, turn the light on something 'bout the night that makes you see what you don't want i think about it every time i sleep, there is someone creepin' at me, I swear they haunting me, tellin' me runOooh I feel my body, without me again Ooh like a sleepwalker, gettin' closer to you, gettin' closer to youI think I might be going crazy now, someone stop me forgot to lock the doors to keep me in, didn't hide the key I feel the cold air, i feel the dirt under my toes something tells me that I'm far away, and I'm not aloneOooh I feel my body, without me again Ooh like a sleepwalker, gettin' closer to you
Oooh I feel my body, without me again
Ooh like a sleepwalker, gettin' closer to you, gettin' closer to youNow we're alone, whispers disturb a quiet home
No one will know
No one, darling
Come closeOooh I feel my body, without me again
Ooh like a sleepwalker, gettin' closer to you
Oooh I feel my body, without me again
Ooh like a sleepwalker, gettin' closer to youI gotta hold ya
I gotta hold you
I gotta hold ya
I gotta hold you
I gotta hold ya(feel my body)
I gotta hold you(Off without me)
I gotta hold ya
I gotta hold you(I could see you walking)
I gotta hold ya
I gotta hold you(without me again, without me again)
I gotta hold ya
I gotta hold you(gettin' closer to you)
