Remember Me Well

Sarah Kelly

Why must this road come to an end?
What was so right now seeming so wrong
But even the sun must set my friend
And the time has come
We must be moving onDay has lead to this night
Time to say our goodbyes
And move on
Remember me wellCherishing the good times
Forgiving all the bad times
Moving on
Remember me wellA not so distant melody
Singing softly, ringing in my ear
A bittersweet memory
With now one too many tearsDay has lead to this night
Time to say our goodbyes
And move on
Remember me wellCherishing the good times
Forgiving all the bad times
Moving on
Remember me wellJust one last look
Back to yesterday
Just one more tear
Cried for yesterdayDay has lead to this night
Time to say our goodbyes
And move on
Remember me wellCherishing the good times
Forgiving all the bad times
Moving on
I'll remember you well
I'll remember you well
