

Remember Me Well

Sarah Kelly

Why must this road come to an end?
What was so right now seeming so wrong
 But even the sun must set my friend
 And the time has come
We must be moving onDay has lead to this night
 Time to say our goodbyes
 And move on
Remember me wellCherishing the good times
 Forgiving all the bad times
 Moving on
Remember me wellA not so distant melody
 Singing softly, ringing in my ear
 A bittersweet memory
With now one too many tearsDay has lead to this night
 Time to say our goodbyes
 And move on
Remember me wellCherishing the good times
 Forgiving all the bad times
 Moving on
Remember me wellJust one last look
 Back to yesterday
 Just one more tear
Cried for yesterdayDay has lead to this night
 Time to say our goodbyes
 And move on
Remember me wellCherishing the good times
 Forgiving all the bad times
 Moving on
 I'll remember you well
 I'll remember you well
