Washington

Keep me around as your skeleton
The curtains that I stole, a new year running cold
I picture like my dream what never will appear
I picture like my dream what never will appearI will take it in a while
And I'll give you your time in a while
I will take it in a while
And I'll give you your time in a whileKeep me around as your burden
The stillness in my eyes like winter late at night
I try to forget, you try not to regret
I try to forget, you try not to regret
You try not to regretI will take it in a while
And I'll give you your time in a while
I will take it in a while
And I'll give you your time in a whileKeep me around as a friend
Try not to shut me out
I think I've done my time
Memories that I haveI'm glad that you were mine
I'm glad that you were mine
I'm sad that you were mine
I'm sad that you were mineI'm glad that you were mine
I'm glad that you were mine
I'm sad that you were mine
I'm sad that you were mine
