

Boy and the Ghost

Tarja Turunen

the streets are empty
Inside it's warm
His hands are shaking
They locked the door A voice is calling
Asking to get in All he wanted was a toy
All he needed was a gentle heart
To lead him through the dark
When his dreams are running wild Boy and the ghost Fire's not burning
The lights went out
The lights went out Big family dinner
The untold pain
Their eyes are sparkling
On his frozen face Angels calling
Asking to get in All he wanted was a toy
All he needed was a gentle heart
To lead him through the dark
When there's nowhere left to fall Boy and the ghost His eyes are burning
The lights went out
The dream is on Wake up, wake up
There's an angel in the snow
Look up, look up
It's a frightened dead boy With so much hate
Such bad dreams
He could have seen
The toy's the key
But no one saw No one saw All he wanted was a toy
All he needed was a beating heart
To lead him through the dark
Boy and the ghost When there's nowhere left to fall
Nowhere to hide
The silence is 'hurting'
Inside it's cold
Sleep or die
Nowhere to go
Nowhere to hide His light went out
