

Take a Stand

Youth of Today

I see you hide
Do you have pride
Afraid to share what's inside you've been walked right by a real nice guy
overlooked and shoved aside can't hear your voice back in the crowd move up front and shout out loud !
take a stand !
take a stand, say what you feel be who you want, but be for real!
voice your opinion,
don't jsut sit still speak your mind at your free will
take a stand !
stand your ground
don't let the world push you around
take a stand !
stand your ground
don't let the world push you around !
