Featherstone

Tash Sultana

It's in paper eyes
Lipstick kisses smeared across your face
Stone cold feeling
The ice that runs through your bones

But this world cannot keep still
And this world cannot keep quiet
And this world cannot define us
On featherstone

Minimum wage
But we get by just fine
I'm a little fine ooh
But what
Personalities combine to a science
Its beyond doors

But this world cannot keep still ooh
And this world cannot keep quiet
And this world cannot define us
On a featherstone

And this world cannot keep still, no
And this world cannot keep quiet
And this world cannot define us
On a featherstone
On a featherstone
On a feather, on a featherstone
mmm ah oh
