Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Shes the brightes Ive ever seen
Brightest Ive ever know
Shines like 22" crome (shes a missing piece in my life)
Like a 24 carrot ring that needs a stone
Have you ever seen somethin so beautiful that will go and make you spend it all
If i didnt have her Id be worthless like a king without a throne
If i was jacob i would probably sell everything I own
Just to have this jewel that I know Id be lucky just to own
The thing that gets more valuble the more it gets sold
I think i might have found the perfect dimondBaby girl reminds me of a jewelry store
Just look at how she shines shines shines
Like a superstar
Sweeter than a candystore
Just what i been lookin for Ima maker her mine
so what am I waiting for
