Under the Influence of Love

George Hamilton IV

Under the influence of love
She knew I knew that she was out to get me but I just close my eyes let it be Now she walks by me like she never met me I didn't even make a memory
For I was under the influence of love I wonder now what I was thinking of Yes I was so in love I let her hurt me though I knew better
Under the influence of loveWhy did I let her do me like she done me why can't I get that woman off my mind
Although I know she never truly loved me I wish she break my heart just one time
For I was under the influence of love
