From Time To Time

Rascal Flatts

From time to time I have regrets
For all the things I didn't say that were on my list
From time to time my memory slips
But you're the one thing in my life I won't forget
There'll never be minute of the day, I won't think of you
My feelings are so strong in me, I feel it through and through
There'll never be a night that's so dark that we won't shine
Or a dream that we've lost that we can't find
You'll always be, oh the one for me
I think of you from time to time and in between
There'll never be minute of the day, I won't think of you
My feelings are so strong in me, I feel it through and through
There'll never be a night that's so dark that we won't shine
Or a dream that we've lost that we can't find
You'll always be, oh the one for me
I think of you from time to time and in between
You'll always be, hmm the one for me
I think of you from time to time and in between, ooo yeah
You'll always be, hmm the one for me
I think of you from time to time
And in between yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah I do
I think of you from time to time and in between
