With Pitiless Blows

A Life Once Lost

We collapse, hands interlude
Cheek against cheek a pulse duet hums
Through our veins and I'm not sure why
And I continueWhen we start to embarrass each other
As our lies attain bi-partial virtue
And all I want is to die
All I want is to dieI gain and lose control
Like some fucked up lust opiateAnd now you will forever abhor me
As I purge myself one piece at a timeI won't forget my reflection
Loved and lost in between your thighs
And don't forget how I can't forget you
I continueWhen we start to embarrass each other
Hypnotic and gross, stained with a big deal
And all I want is to die
All I want is to dieI gain and lose control
Like some fucked up lust opiateAnd now you will forever abhor me
As I purge myself one piece at a time
I'd rather erase my two ton impact on your life
This shouldn't be my only way outAnxious to have validity
Knowing I just take up space
I'll continue to swell
Thanks to the induction of severityWith pitiless blows
With pitiless blowsAnd now you will forever abhor me
As I purge myself one piece at a time
I'd rather erase my two ton impact on your life
This shouldn't be my only way out
