My Baby Said

Sponge

She was a waitress but convinced she was a dead movie star
Reincarnated to live the life of a queen
But the real scars she was nursing was not from a man
But from a beast of burden
Because in real life she could not live her dreams, oh yeahAll day long he drove a cab for 30 years
He was the man, take you anywhere that you pleased
And for 30 years he was amazed, he took care of his wife and her bad legs
He thought he lived a life like a machine
And he hoped he could have been the drummer man
In some great big band that would drive the world wild with his beat
And oh yeahBaby said that she always been a, she always been a
She always been a dreamer
Baby said that she always been a, she always been
She always been a dreamerShe ain't scared with her hands up in the air
She shows the world she's a super star, can't you see?
Are stars made or are they born?
She's glamorous but so unknown, she's always so well received
Easy to love and easy to pleaseBaby said that she always been a, she always been a
She always been a dreamer
Baby said that she always been a, she always been a
She always been a dreamerBaby said that she always been a, she always been a
She always been a dreamer
Baby said that she always been a, she always been a
She always been a dreamer

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/