Yank Rachell - mandolin & guitar

Joe Williams - guitar

Recorded March 13, 1938 Aurora, Illinois Leland Hotel

Album: Bluebird Recordings 1937-1938

Transcriber: Awcantor@aol.com Now, any-'is, moonshine

Moonshine do harm to many men

Now any-'is, moonshine

Moonshine do harm to many men

Now, that is the reason why

Yank, I believe I'll make a change Now, moonshine will make you shoot down

Make you wanna fight

Now n' when you go home

An you can't, treat your wife right Well, you've been drinkin' moonshine

Moonshine do harm to many men

Now, that is the reason why

I believe I'll make a change Now, moonshine will make you think that the policeman

Is little deliver boy

Moonshine will make you think that street cars

Is little children play toys Then you been drinkin' moonshine

Moonshine do harm to many men

Now, that is the reason why

I believe I'll make a change Now, moonshine will make you go home

Lay down 'cross yo' bed

An your wife try to talk wit'ch you

You say, you didn't hear a word she said You been drinkin' moonshine

Moonshine do harm to many men

Now, that is the reason why

I believe I'll make a change Now, moonshine will make you get drunk

N' walk out in the street

Moonshine will make you cuss out most

Anybody you meet You been drinkin' moonshine

Moonshine do harm to many men

Now, that is the reason why

I believe I'll make a change.
