

Tie Her Down

Senses Fail

So let me take thee with a chainsaw
And take the glass against your wrists
You know I am your worst nightmare
Oh how you love my bloody kiss But it's time to die
You're worth more dead Tell me your fantasies
I'll make you believe
That I really care
I'll look into your eyes
I'll tell you all my lies
As I take you slow So love me take thee with a chainsaw
I'll leave you like your father did
I'll bite your lip so fucking, so hard
And watch the innocence just rip Down your chest
And into my mouth Tell me your fantasies
I'll make you believe
That I really care
I'll look into your eyes
I'll tell you all my lies
As I take you slow (So take your tears and go away)
So take your tears and go away
A bitter ending from a slow decay
So take your tears and go away
And I'll sit here with a smile, that I'll match The pain, she cried, the heartache
(Enter your life)
The lies, she cried, the heartache
(Enter the life)
The life, she cried, the heartache
(Enter the life)
Enter the life, she cried
The heartache
