

Frozen One

Dance Gavin Dance

It never was compatible
But something made it flammable We were young and so jealous and we let it all go to waste Don't bother having a conscience
Now stuff our life into bags We were young and so jealous and we let it all Fake the smallest version of myself
Can't shake this moment inside of my head duck in shame and sink into my shell
And play it over and over again until the favors end Sit around and waiting Thinkin how your treated
Feeling like your fadin
Complaining and wasting away I slip the sloppy g'day, the drink is always amazed at how much I would like to let it control me I make a pact with my friends well never lose a game again
Unless the shots I take are served from the bar I'm about to dunk
You're telling me I'm chosen one
But I'm stuck inside a funk
But lately I've been the frozen one
Im scared of getting punkd
So I'll become a drunk Stop that you ain't no friend of mine
We don't believe your lies
Go on and your live your life
Running out the back door Stop no need to apologize
No way to make it right
Go on and live your life
Running out the back door
