Fool Yourself

Bonnie Raitt

Lookout boy your bound to change you can't ever stay the same cause if ya keep on sayin the same ol'lies your gonna look around boy and find yourself outta timeWatchout girl the words you say don't really fit the play somebody else you might talk to now and knows what ya say and what ya mean but don't help this timeCHORUS You might say that you ain't got a, hold on yourself you might say that you only try your best you might say that you only need a rest you might say you can only fool yourself fool yourself, fool yourselfDon't believe the words you read their written on the street evry time you try to lay their game their gonna knock you down and take your pride awaySee how bad you need to cry but no matter how hard you try its the same old story once again you always hide from the one who calls you friend I call you friendRepeat ChorusFool yourself 3-5x and fades out
