Until You Got Love

Jon McLaughlin

Fourth floor, lonely, white and neater, sits there starin' at the screen

Types in, can anybody tell me what it all means?

Tick-tock, waitin' for an answer

It's no use and all at once to her surprise she gets one replyUntil you got love, you know you got nothin' You're missin' that somethin' that's gonna set you free, yeah

Until you got love, you'll always be runnin'

Love is that one thing that everybody needsSunday, no one's at the office just waitin' at his father's desk Workin', tryin' to fill the shoes that his dad left

Dear son, he finds in a letter

Please try your best to learn from my mistakes, you know work can waitUntil you got love, you know you got nothin'

You're missin' that somethin' that's gonna set you free, yeah

Until you got love, you'll always be runnin'

Love is that one thing that everybody needsThere's nothing cool in this room, nothing new in what I'm sayin'

But sometimes the truth is what it is

So why should I apologize for lookin' for a better way to live?

Way to liveUntil you got love, you know you got nothin'

You're missin' that somethin' that's gonna set you free, yeah

Until you got love, you'll always be runnin'

'Cause love is that one thing that everybody needsUntil you got love, you know you got nothin'

You're missin' that somethin' that's gonna set you free, yeah

Until you got love, you'll always be runnin'

'Cause love is that one thing that everybody needs
