Let's Agree to Disagree

Buck Owens

The flame of love was burning high we vowed to never let it die
But now you're growing tired of me so let's agree to disagree
Let's agree to disagree there's nothing left for you and me
You won't be happy till you're free so let's agree to disagree
[steel]
I'll miss you but I'll live somehow in fact I miss you even now
But you don't want no part of me so let's agree to disagree
Let's agree to disagree...
