

Turning Point

Turning Point

I've seen it happen
Too many times
All the kids with wasted minds
But that won't happen to me
And I still can't fucking see
If you were smart
You'd lose that fucking joint it's finally time for my
Turning point
It's never too late
To change your ways
Once you give it up
There'll be brighter days
But that won't happen to you
Just cut out all the shit you do
Because you're smart
You got my fucking point
It's finally time for your
Turning Point
