

She's a Liar

Y&T

Look at the way she shakes her hips
When she walks my way, she pouts her lips
So don't tell me I don't have a chance
With that girl You're gonna say she's all hooked up
Got a big boyfriend and he's really tough
Well, just watch me while I strut my stuff
'Cause I know She's a liar
When she says she don't want my love
She's a liar
'Cause her baby don't give her enough She's a liar
When she says I'm not the one she needs
She's a liar
Well, tonight she's gonna give it to me Look at the way she flashed those eyes
Gotta be a fool not the realize
There's somethin' burnin' deep inside of that girl Gonna say that's just her style
When she looks that way and she smiles that smile
Well you'll be surprised when I get more, more, more She's a liar
She says she don't want my love
She's a liar
'Cause her baby don't give her enough She's a liar
When she says I'm not the one she needs
She's a liar
Well, tonight she's gonna give it to me No girl can tease all the time
That girl's been lyin' but
She'll tell the truth
She'll tell the truth, tonight She's a liar
When she says she don't want my love
She's a liar
'Cause her baby won't give her enough She's a liar
When she says I'm not the one she needs
She's a liar
That's right, 'cause tonight
She's gonna give it to me She's a liar
When she says she don't want my love
She's a liar
'Coz she knows I'm gonna give her enough She's a liar
She knows that I'm the one she needs
She's a liar
'Cause tonight I know shell give it to me
