

I've Got A Woman

Anders Osborne

I've got a woman, and she's good to me Days on end now, you know she's sweet as can be While most of my friends, She's alright like that?I've got a woman that i do. And she aint no fairweather friend i got a woman no, and she aint no fairweather friend still remember kissing on her all night you under the pale moon blue light and i thank my lucky star shining down on me takin on when destiny callsi got a woman, that i do and she aint no fairweather friend i got a woman, that i do, and she aint no fair weather friendand you know i had a once, didnt last that long
