

Here We Go Again (feat. Luke McMasterson)

Alexz Johnson

Am I heading for disaster?
Am I forgetting what I know
Or am I afraid instead of letting go? Are we dangerous together?
Are we pretending to be sure?
Are we walking into that storm? Here we go again
Back to where we never been
Take it from the end
Start over and make it better
Here we go again Is this what we always wanted?
Is this a beautiful mistake?
Is this the way two hearts are bound to break? Show me a part of you that's different
Show me that you know what I need
Give me something we can believe in Here we go again
Back to where we never been
Take it from the end
Start over and make it better
Here we go again 'Cause I'm older and I'm wiser
And I'm ready to hold on for something deeper
Something stronger, I'm ready for you Here we go again
Back to where we never been
Take it from the end Here we go again
Back to where we never been
Take it from the end
Start over and make it better
Here we go again Back to where we never been
Here we go again
Start over and make it better
Here we go again
