Kick It Tonight

Profyle

its been cold for a week we dont talk
we dont speak
turn away from each other when we lie in bed i dont understand whats goin on in our headhow the pride makes us blind
to the hurt
that we both know is killing us slowly inside why cant you and i decide?
someway
somehow
right here
right nowcorus
lets kick it tonight
i dont want to fight
forget who was wrong
forget who was right
if we can forgive each other enough then baby we'll learn how to get back to loveverse2 it feels like by the way
years ago
it was only yesterday and who would have known when we stood under moonlight and stars up above and swore that we'd never give up on our lovecorus2xback to love oh ooooooooh
when the words cut like knives through our hearts through our lives can we leran to love again?
love again oh
kick it tonight
i dont wanna fight no no forget who's right
if we can forgive ooh ooh then baby ooh baby lets kick it tonight i dont wanna fight forget who was wrong
forget who was right
if we can forgive each other baby ooh oohcorus until completely fades
