

Red

Andrea Hamilton

Verse 1:

My heart is free
Cause what i held on tight has flown away from me
I used to think
That i was grey and fine alone and not in need. but i wanted to be Ya i wanted to be

Chorus:

Red, can you see whatâ€™s inside only when iâ€™m opened
In the rain, if it stings then you know youâ€™re alive
When youâ€™ve bled, when the world takes away all the pride and childish notions (last ch: ..all the lies, contrived and token)
You can only see red after youâ€™ve been broken

Verse 2:

Vintage diary
When i write its color flowing covers me
Oh, and did you see
That i hide it in the closet underneath. but i want it to be Read; ya i want it to be

Chorus

Bridge:

Why all the best dreams come at the hardest times
How the truth does burn, but my heart, itâ€™s beating
Like it never has
