At Last

Coldseed

Fill it up with all your rage now
No more time to kill the pain anyhow
Take a chance and make the sirens scream
Take a glance you're going insaneOne more trick before your soul dies
No more time to kill the sound anyhow
One more sign before your mind explodes
It's too damn full and you make it blowBlow your mind to get a break now
No more time to hesitate anyhow
One more trick before your soul dies
It's too damn sick to pay the priceStretch your power to the end now
No more time to kill the sound anyhow
One more sign before your mind explodes
It's too damn full and you make it blow
It could have been you, you know it's true
It's stabbing the heart of mine [x2]Running, running
Running away from the past
Reaching, reaching
Reaching out at lastIt could have been you, you know it's true
It's stabbing the heart of mine [x2]Running, running
Running away from the past
Reaching, reaching
Reaching out at lastBlow your mind to get a break now
No more time to hesitate anyhow
One more trick before your soul dies
It's too damn sick to pay the price
Stretch your power to the end now
No more time to kill the sound anyhow
One more sign before your mind explodes
It's too damn full and you make it blow
And you make it blow
And you make it blow
