

Indigo

Tom Milsom

If i matter to you
Then all i would see is Indigo
Nothing else i could do
Could ever make you more dear to me and so Every green, every blue
Every red, orange and ultramarine
I've seen would go indigo for you

Every time when I look Deep inside me the colors all I see and my mind is a book rainbow painted with stories about me photographs that I took that were once black and white would now be free to be shades of indigo for you orange yellow green and male kite autorine light plum and eggshell white International klein blue maroon

azure magenta midnight blue harlequin and heliotrope
tea time turquoise teal and taupe
amaranth and ivory
cosmic late tangerine

orange yellow green and male kite
autorine light plum and eggshell white
International klein blue maroon
azure magenta midnight blue
harlequin and heliotrope
tea time turquoise teal and taupe
amaranth and ivory
cosmic late tangerine

If i matter to you
Then all i would see is Indigo
Nothing else i could do
Could ever make you more dear to me and so
Every green, every blue

Every pink, black, white, gray, Adunt mauve and sureve beige and ultramarine
I've seen would go indigo for you.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlyrics.com/>