

(We Were) Electrocute

Type O Negative

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

We were electrocute
In our has been nineteen eighty's suits
So we electrocute Everyone we knew said it too
That's when even strangers knew our names
Ten years later sighed, what a shame We were electrocute
To make the point again is moot
So we electrocutes How on you I've wasted my youth
Your cold eyes of Coney Island sand
Hair dyed the blood of a foolish man So proud, to be, by your side
We were, a team, no one, denied Even, though I, still miss, your lips
You're, about as, real as, yes your tits
