Run This Town

Lucy Hale

Hold on cause I'm letting go
I'm gonna lasso your heart like a rodeo
I'm gonna give you some till you want some more
Cause all I see is an open doorAnd I see where it's leading me
All of this energy, been bottled up way too long It's powerful,powerfulYou see where it's getting at I'm ready for all of that
If I'm not a star, you're blindI've got rings on my fingers
And glitter in my hair
I bought a one-way ticket
And I just got hereI'm gonna run this town,run this town X2I've got high heel stilettos
And I'm kicking in doors
And kissing your feet ain't what my lipstick's forI'm gonna run this town,run this town X2
TonightI'm climbing high, but there ain't no net
You like to see me jump a bit
Well, everyday's just like Russian roulette
I'm gonna play,play,play with no regretsCause I'm tired of second best
Tired of doing this
Tired of hypocrites
Twisted like licoriceI'm crushing them in my fist
Hushing their ignorance
You had your chance, now's mineI've got rings on my fingers
And glitter in my hair
I bought a one-way ticket
And I just got hereI'm gonna run this town,run this town X2Tonight, nothing's standing in my way
There's no obstacles anymore
In a minute, I'll be on my way
To the moment I've been waiting forI've got rings on my fingers
And glitter in my hair
I bought a one-way ticket
And I just got hereI'm gonna run this town, run this town
I'm gonna run this town, TONIGHT!!!I've got rings on my fingers
And glitter in my hair
I bought a one-way ticket
And I just got hereI'm gonna run this town, run this town X2I've got high heel stilettos
And I'm kicking in doors
And kissing your feet ain't what my lipstick's forI'm gonna run this town, run this town X2I'm gonna run, I'm gonna run, gonna run,
Run this town X2TONIGHT!!!!!!!!!!!!Run this town X2TONIGHT!!!!!!!!!!!I'm gonna run this town, run this town

Tonight
