

The Return

Nonpoint

I gave up when I didn't have anymore to give
Why should I try when I know there isn't a way for anyone to live
The negative is feeding on everything and not leaving anything for the positive to live on
And giving the same old sad excuses
Why should I believe
The weakest part of this tree
Can never take the weight of you and me
So why should I believe
The weakest part of this tree
Is ever gonna take the weight of you and me
So then you're crawling on your hands and knees (crawling on your hands and knees)
Right back to where I knew we would be (back to where I knew we would be)
And then you're crawling on your hands and knees (crawling on your hands and knees)
Right back to where I knew we would be (back to where I knew we would be)
I always knew you'd return
Right back to me
No love no life forever
Best friends'll be dead before we're BFFs
I gotta save my senses
Put up fences
And forget the rest
Forget pride, this is all about sanity co-sign vanity, take your bets
My money's only leaving no regrets
Leaving baggage behind and put you in check
You never understood anything that I said
I was worn out in bed
Itches from a cold day
Life is heartless, vengeful, violent and never let it end
You never understood anything that I said
I was worn out in bed
Itches from a cold day
Life is heartless, vengeful, violent and never let it end
So then you're crawling on your hands and knees (crawling on your hands and knees)
Right back to where I knew we would be (back to where I knew we would be)
And then you're crawling on your hands and knees (crawling on your hands and knees)
Right back to where I knew we would be (back to where I knew we would be)
I always knew you'd return
Right back to me
Right back to me
I always knew you'd return
Right back to mex4
On your knees
(Ya gotta) pull this shit for you to take x4
On your knees
(Ya gotta) pull this shit for you x4 x3
Pull this shit for you
So then you're crawling on your hands and knees (crawling on your hands and knees)
Right back to where I knew we would be (back to where I knew we would be)
And then you're crawling on your hands and knees (crawling on your hands and knees)
Right back to where I knew we would be (back to where I knew we would be)I always knew you'd return

Right back to me

I always knew you'd return

Right back to me
