A Last Farewell

Lovehatehero

Everyone's dying, I feel it inside me
I wish I got to say goodbye, still there's no more time
You'd wipe that tear off from my eye, and soothe me
Everyone's dying, I feel it inside meSo, cause I'd call, to tell you how I'm doing
And you'd smile, to tell me you're alright
But you're gone, and starting new beginnings
Just wish I got to say goodbyeTo safely say that it's not right, it's not your time
And turn back time so you're alright, tonight
To hold your hand, stand by your side
Stay up all night, and feel your heart beat close to mine, tonightI'd call, to tell you how I'm doing
And you'd smile, to tell me you're alright
But you're gone, and starting new beginnings
Just wish I got to say goodbyeI wish I could have seen her leaving,
Wish someone would hold her hand
I wish I could have seen her leaving,
Wish someone would understandI wish I could have seen her leaving,
Wish I could have held her hand
I wish I could have seen her leaving,
Wish someone would understandEveryone's dying, I feel it inside meI wish I could have seen her leaving,
Wish I could have held her hand
I wish I could have seen her leaving,
Wish someone would understandI wish I could have seen her leaving,
Wish I could have held her hand
I wish I could have seen her leaving,
Wish someone would understand
