

Silver Wings

Whiskeytown

Silver wings shining in the sunlight
Roaring engines headed somewhere in flight
They're taking you away
Leaving me lonely
Silver wings slowly fading out of sightSilver wings shining in the sunlight
Roaring engines headed somewhere in flight
They're taking you away
Leaving me lonely
Silver wings slowly fading out of sightDon't leave me I cry
Don't take that airplane ride
But you lock me outta your mind
Left me standing here behindSilver wings shining in the sunlight
Roaring engines headed somewhere in flight
They're taking you away
Leaving me lonely
Silver wings slowly fading out of sightSlowly fading out of sight
Slowly fading out of sight
