

Keyless Door

Delerium

You walk so far back to your car
Checking behind you
Alone at four you leave the bar
Swirling inside you
And as you stumble
The tears well up in your eyes
You hold your hands out to findThe keyless door
The keyless doorAnd as you stumble
The tears well up in your eyes
You hold your hands out to findThe keyless door
The keyless doorIf someone could see you
If someone could hear you
If someone could know you
They'd surely love you
And as you stumble
The tears well up in your eyes
You hold your hands to findThe keyless door (X4)If someone could see you
If someone could hear you
If someone could know you
Then they'd surely love you
