Castaway

Stratovarius

I've been lost far too long
Need to find my way back home
Dig a hole and hide inside
Live to see the morning breakJust a wayward soul Played the last card, lost it all all is gone, but one remains
In your hands I place my lifeTake me in Wash away the sin
Make me whole again
In your sanctuaryHide away
I'm your castaway
Let me fall a sleep
Wake up to a brighter day
