Good for One Thing

Leighton Meester

Talk over the radio, that way everyone can hear.
Louder than the stereo, don't worry your head my dear.
I think it's hilarious, the way you talk about yourself
But don't tell that story again.You're good for one thing, I can't help but calling you out
But you're so lovely, I can't behave myselfLook into the mirror, I know you're good at that Don't be so insecure, as long as you shut your mouth
Take yourself so serious, like you're talking for your health
But don't sell that story again.You're good for one thing, I can't help but calling you out
But you're so lovely, I can't behave myselfBe slow. Anybody home?You're good for one thing, I can't help but calling you out
But you're so lovely, I can not help myself
You're good for one thing, I can't help but calling you out
But you're so lovely, I can't behave myself
