Got our word in '77
But where the hell were you?
Sent a response into the heavens
Didn't have a clue.
We boldly came where we had been.
Don't think we haven't seen.
Your plagues, your wars, your comedies.
Your world's analogiesI don't believe that's rich.
Our carbon base we fit.
The wow signal it never quits.
you're not the only one.
Rotating 'round the sun.
Finality's begun
You called and we came in peace
To show we're civilized
You fired weapons, spread disease
You caused your own demise
10,000 years compounded
You let you species down
Erased yourselves from History
Your civilization drowned
I don't believe that's rich.
Our carbon base we fit.
The wow signal it never quits.
you're not the only one.
Rotating 'round the sun.
Finality's begun
Finality is has begun
